

Brief profile for website

DR. GURMINDER KAUR

Dr. Gurminder Kaur joined Dr. Ambedkar Government Law College, Puducherry in 2018 upon selection by UPSC, New Delhi. She is currently Assistant Professor of Law. She has been a meritorious aluminous of the Army Institute of Law, Mohali wherefrom she successfully pursued BALLB. She was awarded the degree of Ph.D. in 2019 that she had pursued from Deptt. of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

Her core area of interest is Criminal Justice and Human Rights with predominance of Feminism. She has been teaching International Law and Human Rights along with International Relations and Law of Treaties at AGLC.

She has two distinctions at the national level to her credit. She is the recipient of Rashtrapati Puruskar in Bharat Scouts and Guides that was awarded to her by his Excellency, the then President of India, Late Dr. Abdul Kalam in 2003. She also holds the distinction of being amongst 0.1% meritorious students from all over India by CBSE in 2004 for her exemplary performance in Sociology.

She has numerous research paper publications in journals and books of high repute and research paper presentations in various International and National level seminars/ conferences.

Contact: gurminder2410@gmail.com