

Mrs. Nainy Singh is Assistant Professor. She is currently pursuing Ph.D. programme from NALSAR University of law. She holds her LLM degree from National Law School, Bangalore. She did B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) from Faculty of law, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi.

At NLSIU, she was the recipient of the DAAD scholarship for summer exchange programme with University of Cologne, Germany. In Germany, she also offered organizational assistance and participated in 5th Indo- German ICT conference NASSCOM, BITCOM, Osborne Clarke, Otto Beisheim School of Management and City of Cologne.

At NLSIU, she did credit course on "International Climate Law and Litigation" which was conducted by Armin Rosencranz. She has several research publications in top national and international journals and also has paper presentations to her credit. She has also reviewed various articles in reputed journals. She has also attended National conferences, seminars, workshops, faculty development programmes and training programmes. Her area of interest is Business laws.