

Three Year LL.B
Third Year – Sixth Semester
PAPER – I

Five Years LL. B:
Fifth Year – Tenth Semester
PAPER-I

PRACTICAL TRAINING - III

This paper carries 100 marks which is to be awarded by way of internal assessment. The assessment is to be awarded in respect of the following components. All the components prescribed hereunder are compulsory and eventually, the students should do all of them without fail. In case, any student fails to do any particular component, he is to be treated absent for this paper as a whole and he should be required to Redo the same in the next Academic year. The overall passing minimum for this paper is 45marks.

1. Moot Court [For three problems]	30 Marks
2. Attendance and observation of	10 Marks
Legal aid and lok adalat proceedings
3. Case comments	15 Marks
4. Observation of trail
Civil case	10 Marks
Criminal case	10 Marks	20 Marks
5. Viva	25 Marks

	Total	100 Marks

Note: 1. Besides the overall passing minimum of 45%, there is no passing minimum in respect of the marks earmarked for each of the aforesaid components.

1. Viva is to be based on the exposure gained by the students while doing the first four of the aforesaid components.

Moot Court:

The component of moot court carries 30 marks out of 100 marks earmarked for this paper. Three problems will be given to the students and the students will have to do three moot courts. Each moot court carries 10 marks and the break up is as under.

For memorials	5 Marks (5 x 3 = 15 marks)
For presentation of case before
the Judges (examiners)	5 Marks (5 x 3 = 15 marks)

The said three moot court problems will be given to the students of final year at the commencement of the Ninth Semester in the month of August and they will be given 5 - 6 months for preparation of memorials (both sides).

The memorials shall be submitted for evaluation by the examiners during the third week of January of the next following calendar year.

Finally, the students will be required to present their case before the examiners during the Tenth Semester be between the first week and third week of February of the next calendar year.

 In case of Three Years LL. B. Degree, it is Fifth Semester and Sixth Semester.

Five Years LL. B.:
Fifth Year – Tenth Semester
PAPER – II

Three Year LL.B:
Third Year – Sixth Semester
PAPER-II

PRACTICAL TRAINING - IV

This paper is oriented towards exposing the students to vital aspects of practice through rigorous attendance of lawyer's chamber. In association with the lawyer of reasonable standing, students are expected to become familiar with the skills of negotiation, counseling and interviewing with the clients. Besides, students would also get trained in preparing various documents to be filed in courts of law very often in course of their practice.

This is a theory paper carrying 100 marks of which 25 marks are earmarked for viva voce. The aim of the examination is to test the knowledge of the students gained from their active association with the lawyer of their own choice during the course of final year of their studies. Effective evaluation of the performance of the students is to be made on the basis of the examination devoted exclusively to the problems with distinct facts. Areas identified for the purpose are as under.

PART - I

(a). Civil law

1. Notice
2. Reply notice
3. Framing of issues
4. Decree and judgment

(b). Criminal law

5. Private complaint
6. Bail application with memo of appearance and surety forms.
7. Framing of charge
8. Judgment

PART - II

Applications/ Petitions and other proceedings:

(a). Civil law - Civil Procedure Code, 1908

1. Amendment of pleadings ---- Order VI Rule 16 and 17
2. Setting aside an ex parte decree ---- Order IX Rule 13
3. Adjournment of case ---- Order XVII Rule 1
4. Recalling and examination of witness ---- Order XVIII Rule 17
5. Appointment of commissioner to make local investigation ---- Order XXVI Rule 9
6. Attachment before judgment ---- Order XXXVIII Rule 5
7. Injunction ---- Order XXXIX Rule 1
8. Execution petition ---- Order XXI Rule 11(2)
9. Transfer of cases ---- Section 24
10. Appointment of receiver ---- Order XXXX Rule 1

(b). Criminal law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973

1. Maintenance petition under Section 125
2. Adjournment petition under Section 309
3. Recalling and examination of witness under Section 311

4. Dispensing with personal appearance of the accused under Section 317
5. Compounding petition under Section 320
6. Suspension of sentence under Section 389 (1) and (3)
7. Anticipatory bail with affidavit under Section 438
8. Return of property under Section 451 and 452
9. Quash petition before the High Court under Section 482
10. Transfer of cases under Section 407.

For the purpose of gaining exposure with the help of advocates, students would be required to choose an advocate having not less than 10 years practice and on selection, the institution would inform the advocates concerned and solicit their assistance in our effort to train them effectively. This process of selection and intimation is to be made in the second month of the Ninth Semester of the course i.e., the month of July.

Students will be required to attend the lawyer chamber chosen by them regularly for the entire academic year and only on the basis of certificate issued by the lawyer concerned in regard to his attendance of the chamber, they will be permitted to take up the written examination in the Tenth Semester. As part of this requirement, students will also be required to write assignments on the above topics (both civil and criminal law) and the same to be signed by the lawyer concerned and countersigned by the teacher - in - charge. The said assignments will have to be submitted for evaluation by the viva examiner.

	Duration	Maximum Marks	Minimum
Written Examination	3 hours	75	35
Viva voce	-----	25	----
		100	45

 In case of Three Years LL. B. Degree, it is Fifth Semester and Sixth Semester

Note:

Question paper setter for this paper shall be exclusively chosen from among those who are having experience both in teaching and practice. Hence, part time teachers in law who are actively engaged in practice for not less than ten years may be enlisted in the panel of examiners.