About the Institution

Dr. Ambedkar Government Law College, Puducherry was established in 1972 by the Government of Puducherry and will be celebrating its Golden Jubilee year between August 2021 to August 2022. The college was originally affiliated to Madras University and it is now presently affiliated to Pondicherry University. This institution is known all over India for its excellence and rich contribution to legal education. In Puducherry, it is the only Government Law College having a vast curriculum. It has earned its reputation in such a way that legal educations in Puducherry and Dr. Ambedkar Government Law College have been treated as synonymous to each other. Currently, the institution has 590 students including research scholars and it attracts quality students from all over India. The new campus is situated at Periakalapet, Puducherry measuring about 28 acres in an eco-friendly campus with all the amenities and facilities required for academic and research environment. This is the only Government Law College in Puducherry where under one roof we have all major branches of law curriculum like B.A.LL.B. (5 Years Integrated Programme), LL.B. (Three Years Programme), LL.M. (2 Years CBCS Programme in 4 Branches), Postgraduate Diploma in French Law (1 Year Evening Programme) and Ph.D. Programme. Being a research institution this institution is proud to contribute in legal education and research. The physical infrastructure of the institution has the potential to accommodate a whole university in its campus.
